Centaur Liniment.
The great discovery of the age. There is no pain which the Centaur Liniment will not relieve, no swelling which it will not subside, and no lameness which it will not cure. This is strong language, but it is true. It is no humbug; the recipe is printed around each bottle, a circular containing certificates of wonderful cures of rheumatism, neuralgia, lock-jaw, sprains, swellings, burns, scalds, snake-bites, poisonous bites, frozen feet, gout, salt rheum, ear-ache, &c., and the recipe of the Liniment will be sent gratis to anyone. It is the most wonderful healing and pain relieving agent the world has ever produced. It does no article ever before sold, and it sells because it does just what it pretends to do. One bottle of the Centaur Liniment for animals (yellow wrapper) is worth a hundred dollars for spavined, strained or galled horses and mules, and for screw-worm in sheep. No family or stock-owner can afford to be without Centaur Liniment. Price, 50 cents per bottle, $1. J. B. Ross & Co., 33 Broadway, New York.
CASTORIA is more than a substitute for Castor Oil. It is the only safe article in existence which is sure to regulate the bowels, cure windcolic and produce natural sleep. It is pleasant to take. Children need not cry and mothers may sleep. 10-7 wly

Prospectus for 1874—SEVENTH YEAR THE ALDINE.
An Illustrated Monthly Journal, universally admitted to be the most perfect in the World. A representative and champion of American taste.
The Aldine, while issued with all the regularity, has none of the temporary or time-interest, characteristic of ordinary periodicals. It is an elegant miscellany of pure light and graceful literature; and a collection of pictures, the rarest specimens of artistic skill, in black and white. Although each succeeding number affords a fresh pleasure to its friends, the real value and beauty of the Aldine will be most appreciated after the issue of 1874 will contain special designs appropriate to the season, by our best artists, and will surpass in attractions any of its predecessors.
PREMIUMS FOR 1874.
Every subscriber to the Aldine for its year 1874 will receive a pair of chromos. The original pictures were painted in oil by the publishers of the Aldine, by Thomas Moran, whose great Colorado pictures and purchased by congress for ten thousand dollars. The subjects were chosen to represent ten thousand dollars. The subjects were chosen to represent the "East" and "The West." One in the White Mountains, New Hampshire, the other gives the Cliffs of Green river, Wyoming territory. The chromos are each worked from thirty distinct plates, and are a size (12x16) and appearance exact fac-similes of the originals.
NEWARK, N. J., Sept. 20, 1873.
Messrs. JAMES SUTTON & Co., GENTLEMEN—I am delighted with the proofs in color of your chromos. They are wonderfully successful representations by mechanical process of the original paintings. Very respectfully,
THOS. MORAN.
These chromos are in every sense American. They are by an original American process, with material of American manufacture, from designs of American scenery by an American painter, and presented to subscribers by the first successful American Art Journal. It is better because of all this, they will certainly possess an interest no foreign production can inspire, and neither are they any the worse by reason of peculiar facilities of production than the publishers only a trifle, while equal in every respect to other chromos that are sold singly for double the subscription price of the Aldine.
If any subscriber should indicate a preference for a figure subject, the publishers will send "Thoughts of Home" a new and beautiful chromo, 14x20 inches, representing a little Italian exile whose speaking eyes betray the longings of his heart. $5 per annum, in advance, with Old Chromo free.
For $50 CENTS EXTRA, the chromos, mounted, varnished, and prepaid by mail. The Aldine will, hereafter, be obtainable only by subscription. There will no be reduced or club rate; cash for subscriptions must be sent to the publishers direct, or handed to the local canvasser, without responsibility to the publishers, except in cases where the certificate is given, bearing the facsimile signature of James Sutton & Co.
CANVASSERS WANTED.
Any person wishing to act permanently as a local canvasser will receive full and prompt information by applying to
